Note on data protection

We recognize the importance of protecting your privacy. Therefore, we take the protection of your personal information very seriously. We only collect and use personal information to the extent expressly allowed by all legal regulations, particularly the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG), or if we have your valid consent.

Collection and processing of personal data

Personal data, within the meaning of the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG), are individual pieces of information on the personal or material circumstances of a defined or definable natural person, i.e., information that can be used to discover your identity. This includes information such as your name, address, mailing address or telephone number. The submission of your personal data is voluntary. The processing of your transferred data (storage, use) only occurs during the selection, awarding and publication process of the Dr. Wolfgang Hevert Prize. Your data will be treated confidentially and not given to third parties. Exempt therefrom is data which you have consented to be published under point 8 "Declaration" of this application form in case of being awarded the Dr. Wolfgang Hevert Prize 2016.

As a participant in the call for proposals for the Dr. Wolfgang Hevert Prize, you have the right to request and receive, free of charge, information on the personal data stored on you. You also have a right, in accordance with the legal provisions, to correct, block and delete this personal data. You can also revoke your consent to the storage and use of your personal data at any time. To do this, just send us an email at info@hevert.de or a letter to the company address given above. The revocation during the selection, awarding and publication process of the Dr. Wolfgang Hevert Prize 2016 implies the revocation of your application.

I hereby confirm that I have read and understood the note on data protection:
